SERIES OVERVIEW

In modern-day Los Angeles, Kehlani, a guarded artist, and Jake, an aspiring musician, fall hard and fast. But when family expectations, cultural differences, and unresolved trauma begin to surface, they must decide whether their connection is strong enough to bridge the worlds that shaped them.

STYLE

Funny. Real. Intimate

THINK

"Normal People" meets "Love" meets "Insecure"

CHARACTERS

KEHLANI BROOKS

A guarded Chicago transplant and aspiring painter, Kehlani has spent years keeping people at a distance after a traumatic past left her estranged from her family. Fiercely independent and emotionally self-protective, she struggles to let anyone get close.

JAKE KOZLOWICZ

A musician from rural Indiana, Jake moves to Los Angeles chasing a bigger life. Open-hearted, sincere, and unafraid of vulnerability, he challenges Kehlani's defenses in ways neither of them expects.

KAYLEE NICHOLS

Kehlani's outspoken coworker and closest friend. Sharp, funny, and emotionally transparent, Kaylee has a knack for seeing through people, especially Kehlani, and saying what everyone else won't.

SEASON ONE - KEY MOMENTS

"The Party"

A chance encounter at a Hollywood house party sparks an immediate and undeniable connection between Kehlani and Jake that neither can walk away from.

"Exposure"

As Jake quietly integrates into Kehlani's life, a night out with friends exposes unspoken cultural tension and emotional misalignment between their worlds.

"Main Character Energy"

Kehlani pushes Jake away and unexpectedly bumps into an ex, while Kaylee's carefully curated life starts falling apart behind the scenes.

"Stay"

A breaking point arrives when love collides with trauma, family expectation, and emotional truth, leaving both Kehlani and Jake questioning whether connection alone is enough to hold them together.
